TTC Special: Price increases in Caribbean commercial air will scare away tourists

TTC Service.-The Caribbean Hotel and Tourism Association (CHTA) warned that the application of higher taxes and price increases in the commercial air will scare away tourists from the region. Comito said while Caribbean tourist arrivals have grown in recent years, the region continues to lose global market share and growth within the islands.... »

TOURISM

Point of View: Caribbean countries have potential to diversify tourist products, says Cuban expert

Countries in the Caribbean region need to develop their unique features and diversify products in order to attract tourists, according to a Cuban tourism expert. "There are 24 destinations competing with the same products (in the region) ... the same international hotel chains and tour operators, and the same airlines and cruise companies," economist Jose Luis Perello said here at the eighth Seminar on Journalism and Tourism.... »
