THE HIGHLIGHT OF THE WEEK

Foreign Investment is an Active Element in Cuba's Economic Development

Interview with Déborah Rivas Saavedra, general director of foreign investment of the Cuban Ministry of Foreign Trade and Investment. "Last year 2.3 billion dollars in investments were attracted as committed capital, which are going to enter the country to the extent that the projects start being executed. In 2018, although it still hasn't concluded, there are also new concretized businesses, approved reinvestments and projects in an advanced stage of negotiation that can be closed before the year ends."... »
