It's official: Jamaica will open its first regulated casino in 2020

Kingston.- While Jamaica will open its first regulated casino in 2020, the island is not slated to become a casino destination according to Minister of Tourism Edmund Bartlett. "The fact is that casinos are not a requirement for Jamaica's growth, but within the context of the integrated development model, casino gaming is a driver for exponential growth. We do not see Jamaica ever becoming known as a casino destination, but rather a destination in which casino gaming is available," he said..... »
